We have lost our precious angel, one whom we loved so much. Our parents fought so greatly for her life, all of us loving her completely. Her life a mystery, her death a heartache.

Deprived fifteen years with our other sister, not knowing much about her, heartwrenching actions against us - family broken all the more. So much time and effort, is it all in vain? We love our new sister, but it is difficult for all of us to adjust to the situation never known before, ever. Do we really know our new sister? Does she know us? I think not yet, four months not a long time. Will we ever recover as a family? I hope so, but the pain will never go away.

Who caused us such grief and devastation? I would like to know, then may God let justice be served, on earth and in Heaven.
